2016 MASTERS POT

Jordan Spieth took up where he left off in last year's Masters by shooting the low round of the day (66) under unusually cool weather conditions on Day 1. Ernie Els probably shot himself out of the tournament on the 1st hole by recording a 9 on the par 4 hole. Bryson DeChambeau, the amateur All-American from SMU played an even par round of 72. The overwhelming selection of all NTSGA golfers were the #1, #2 & #3 golfers in the world: Jason Day, Jordan Spieth and Rory McIlroy.

Day 2 of this year's Masters opened with overcast skies and very windy conditions. Jordan Spieth, at one point had a 5 stroke lead, but the windy conditions caused him to come back to the field after recording a 74. His one shot lead led Rory McIlroy. Fourteen NTSGA golfers were disappointed as half of their selection combo missed the cut including Phil Mickelson, Zach Johnson, Rickie Fowler and Jason Dufner at the end of the day.

More strong winds on Day 3 greeted the players and only 1 player (Smylie Kaufman) was able to record a score in the 60's. Dallas' own Jordan Spieth still maintained a 1 shot lead over Kaufman and a 2 shot lead over the oldest player in the field, Berhard Langer. NTSGA golfers that had selections near the top of the leaderboard included Joe Thompson, Mike Robertson, Richard Reed, Paul Price and Joe Minter.

The final day of this year's Masters began on more traditional April Augusta weather with blue skies, sunshine and no wind. The spectacular day included 3 holes-in-one, all on the 16th hole. (Shane Lowry, Davis Love III and Louis Oosthuizen). Jordan Spieth was playing OK for the first 5 holes, but birdies on 6-7-8-9 vaulted him into a commanding 5 shot lead over the field. Then disaster struck at Amen corner when Jordan recorded a 7 on the par 3 hole after hitting 2 balls into Rae's Creek. The stunned patrons witnessed the collapse of Jordan Spieth, but were thrilled for the exciting performance of eventual winner, Englishman Danny Willett.

Runners up in the 2016 Masters Pot were Dennis Smith and Gerald Gotcher (Jordan Spieth T2 & Rory McIlroy T10) Joe Minter, Joe Thompson, Richard Reed and Tom Hatfield (Jordan Spieth T2 & Jason Day T10). The overall winner of the Masters Pot was Ollie Cromwell (Jordan Spieth T2 & Dustin Johnson T4). Ollie pockets $280.00. CONGRATULATIONS, OLLIE CROMWELL.

MASTER'S FACTS:

It's one of the best kept numbers in sports....the initiation fee to Augusta National. With barons like Warren Buffett and Bill Gates, among others as members, it goes without saying that money isn't the object, and it isn't. To join is reportedly under $100K which might be one tenth of other high profile clubs in the country. And if you were lucky enough to play the course with a member you can probably afford it. Guest fees are said to be about $40.00.

We spend the first twelve months of our children's lives teaching them to walk and talk and the next twelve years telling them to sit down and shut up!

He can be reached at 972-345-0860 to schedule an appointment.

HOLE-IN-ONE: GREG BRONSON

After overnight heavy rains around the Metroplex, the weather moved out and a beautiful day to play golf at Lantana followed. Greg Bronson, an NTSGA member for only 6 weeks recorded the organization's 3rd Hole-In-One of 2016. Greg used a 5 iron for his 155 yard shot to Lantana's #8 hole for his ace. Witnessing Greg's accurate shot were playing partners Tim Koscinski, Greg Windsor and Dennis Meyer. This is Greg's 6th hole-in-one of his golfing days. He grew up in Eugene, Oregon and relocated to Texas in the mid-80's. He has been a resident of Dallas now for over 30 years. Greg is retired from Sabre Airline Solutions the integrated computer company that handles airline reservations for many commercial carriers.

NTSGA welcomes Greg as a new member and is happy to add $200.00 to his bank.

CONGRATULATIONS, GREG BRONSON.

FUNNY.....

A cowboy named Dennis who just moved from Atlanta to Dallas, walks into a bar and orders three mugs of Budweiser. He sits in the back of the room, drinking a sip out of each one in turn. When he finishes them, he walks back to the bar and orders three more.

The bartender approaches and tells the cowboy, "You know, a mug goes flat after I draw it. It would taste better if you bought one at a time." Dennis replies, "Well you see, I have two brothers. One is an Airborne Ranger, the other is a Navy Seal, both serving overseas somewhere. When we all left our home in Atlanta, we promised that we'd drink this way to remember the days when we drank together. So, I'm drinking one beer for each of my brothers and one for myself."

The bartender admits that this is a nice custom, and leaves it at that. The Cowboy becomes a regular in the bar and always drinks the same way. He orders three mugs and drinks them in turn.

One day, he comes in and only orders two mugs. All the regulars take notice and fall silent. When he comes back to the bar for the second round, the bartender says, "I don't want to intrude on your grief, but I wanted to offer my condolences in your loss."

Dennis looks quite puzzled for a moment, then a light dawns in his eyes and he laughs.

"Oh no, everybody's just fine" he explains. "It's just that me and my girlfriend joined the Baptist Church and I had to quit drinking.... "Hasn't affected my brothers though."
