

NEWSLETTER FOR JUNE 2025

- Results of the PGA Championship Pool are included in this newsletter.
- Most members have linked their cell phones to receive early morning tournament cancellation messages due to weather. If you haven't linked your cell phone, but would like to, contact Webmaster Howie Bacharach at howardbacharach@gmail.com or 410-507-2932.
- Stu Kambury made a Hole-in-One at Country View Golf Club. Watch for the write-up in the July newsletter.
- Texas Star Golf Course closed on May 12 for installation of TifEagle Bermuda Hybrid on all of their greens. Hopefully, they will reopen for play on Oct. 1.
- Lantana is on our schedule for June 30...that is a Monday tournament.
- The next Major Tournament Pot selections (US Open) can be made at Luna Vista on June 11. Scottie Scheffler is off the Board.

MEDICAL ISSUES: If you have medical issues that would prevent you from playing golf, you must advise Membership Chm. Phil Fahs (pfahs57@yahoo.com). The Association maintains a medical exemption list for members with short time illnesses/injuries preventing them from participating in our tournaments.

Dan Pecenka:

Dan took a terrible fall and is facing upcoming surgery. He has resigned from NTSGA, but wanted to be remembered to all of the acquaintances he has made within the organization. He expressed how much he has enjoyed playing golf with NTSGA and fellow members and is hopeful of returning in 2026.

2025 PGA CHAMPIONSHIP

Charlotte, North Carolina was the city hosting this Championship event. The Championship would be played over the Quail Hollow Golf Club; a long, narrow test for the Pro's containing dangerous creeks winding parallel to the fairways. Seventy seven selections were made by NTSGA members in hopes their combo selections were accurate enough to win this year's contest. The most popular selections made were naturally Scottie Scheffler, Rory McIlroy, Bryson DeChambeau and Justin Thomas.

The first round leader was a player not heard from in years, Jhonattan Vegas. He shot a sparkling 1st round, finishing at 7 under par, 64. The number one golfer in world rankings, Scottie Scheffler finished his round, 5 strokes off the pace.

Round 2 took its toll on many of the popular NTSGA selections as Justin Thomas, Ludvig Aberg, Jordan Speith and Shane Lowry missed the cut and would not be playing during the weekend. This knocked out 38 of the 77 selections made by NTSGA members. The 2nd round was highlighted by a Hole-in-One made by Si Woo Kim on the 252 yard par 3, 16th hole. Kim's shot was particularly exciting to NTSGA member, Mike Vestal as he was the only member to select Kim as one of his combo selections. Kim's shot was the longest Hole-in-One made in PGA history during a major tournament. Jhonattan Vegas continued to lead at the conclusion of Round 2. His closest pursuers were Scottie Scheffler, Matt Fitzpatrick, Max Homa and Si Woo Kim.

Saturday's 3rd round began with sunshine, blue skies and windy conditions, but the pro's were making the best of it, at one point, Scottie Scheffler, Jon Rahm, Bryson DeChambeau and Jhonattan Vegas were tied for the lead. This allowed 39 NTSGA PGA Pot selections to remain in contention as the excitement in many households was building. DeChambeau actually bolted into the lead during the round, but several errant shots on the back 9, soon found him 6 shots behind Scheffler at the end of Day 3.

It was now Scottie Schefeller's tournament to win as he started Sunday's final round 3 shots ahead of the closest pursuers Alex Noren, J.T. Poston and Davis Riley. Scottie was making decent shots, but Jon Rahm was making better shots and by Hole #10, Rahm had caught Scheffler. That was as close as Rahm would get, however, as Scheffler hit greens, made excellent putts and pulled away from Rahm winning the 107th PGA Championship by 5 strokes.

Congratulations to Gene Edmondson, Gene Lindsey, Roger Legge, Jim Yarbrough and Rick Wiley...winners of the 2025 PGA Championship Pot, all pocketing $77.00.

FEES:

Many of the DFW golf courses have raised their green/cart fees during the past year. This increase in fees affects all golfers including our golf tournaments. The NTSGA Board of Directors deems it necessary to raise our weekly tournament fees to $60.00 commencing July 1. This fee will replace the $50.00 fee we now pay. Thank you for your understanding.

SCORECARDS...

In last month's newsletter there appeared an article regarding the illegible score entries on the card and the use of an eraser to make a correction if necessary. It also mentioned that the scorecard must be signed by the scorekeeper and signed/attested by another member of the foursome. This article must have fallen on deaf ears as 3 scorecards from Bear Creek had no signatures, 1 scorecard from Watters Creek had no signatures and one scorecard from Country View had no signatures. The scorecard is considered an official record of the score made by each golfer on every hole. Failure to have 2 signatures on the submitted scorecard is ripe for disqualification.

GREAT NEWS:

NTSGA is happy and proud to report that seven year member Gary Nelson's son has recently received a clean bill of health and is now cancer free after undergoing many long months of stomach cancer treatments. The Association is thrilled that the entire Nelson family has received this wonderful news.

USGA GOLF COURSE ETIQUETTE:

1. "Fore" is used to warn anyone standing or moving within the area where a golf ball may land. Don't be shy to yell "FORE" if an errant shot is headed towards other golfers.
2. Do not take your ball out of the hole with your putter. This is a bad habit and only tears the holes edges or even the cup itself.
3. Rake the bunkers after executing a sand shot. It's the courteous thing to do to smooth the ground where your club entered the sand and where your feet dug in. Then smooth the footprints as you exit the low side of the bunker.

When I say, "The other day", I could be referring to anytime between yesterday and 15 years ago!

SIGN-UP:

Tournament Chairman Rod Wells would appreciate members signing up for our tournaments as early as possible, so he can relay the number of participants to the golf course for planning purposes. This enables the courses to plan for the correct number of carts to prepare and also to have an ample number of employees working to ensure a timely start to our tournaments.

THANK YOU...

The Country View Pro Shop and Snack Bar wishes to thank all of the NTSGA members who remained at the club for lunch after their round May 28th. The NTSGA Board of Directors also thanks the 22 members who ate lunch at the golf course. Gestures like this enhance the good NTSGA name throughout the Metrocrest.

FUNNY:

A plane is on its way to Los Angeles, when a Blonde in Economy Class gets up and moves to the First Class section and sits down.

The Flight Attendant watches her do this and asks to see her ticket.

She then tells the Blonde that she paid for Economy Class and that she will have to sit in the back.

The Blonde replies, “I’m blonde, I’m beautiful, I’m going to Los Angeles and I’m staying right here.”

The Flight Attendant goes into the cockpit and tells the Captain and Co-Pilot that there is a blonde bimbo sitting in First Class that belongs in Economy and won't move back to her seat.

The Co-Pilot goes back to the Blonde and tries to explain that because she only paid for Economy she will have to leave and return to her seat.

The Blonde replies, “I’m Blonde, I’m beautiful, I’m going to Los Angeles and I’m staying right here.”

The Co-Pilot returns to the cockpit and tells the Captain that he should probably have the police waiting when they land to arrest this Blonde woman who won't listen to reason.

The Captain says, “You say she is a Blonde? I’ll handle this...I’m married to a Blonde, I speak Blonde.”

The Captain goes back to the Blonde and whispers in her ear, and she says, “Oh, I’m sorry” and gets up and goes back to her seat in Economy.

The Flight Attendant and Co-Pilot are amazed and ask the Captain what he said to make the Blonde move without any fuss.

The Captain replied: "I just told her First Class wasn't going to Los Angeles."
